

A	Describe your project as you currently see it (question/focus/general): a) Attach to this page your question as you first asked it. b) Now write below your question as you see it today. (It may have changed slightly or majorly)
	c) State why this question is of personal importance to you? (Why do you care about this issue/question?)
	d) What do you stand to gain from addressing this question? (What is in it for you?)

Sources: Cite for each source below, its title, (electronic retrieval address if online), a CLEAR brief description of the source, and its relevance to YOUR OWN current question.

For each source you read (in relation to your project)

- A) Title/Author (bib info etc.)
- B) Succinctly describe this source (what is this text about /perspective of the article). Length: 1 full sentence.
- C) Type of source: Historical, Reflective, Journalistic, Scriptural, Other
- D) Rate its relevance /helpfulness to your question. 1 (not) – 5 (very). (Ideally, find helpful refs, but you may find duds too. Search on till you have 4 good ones.)
- E) Find those that will help you (valued of 3 and above) and state its contribution to your project (1 sentence).
