The Marvel Universe has provided the basis for several of the most popular movies and television shows of the past decade, including Iron Man, X-Men, Thor, Captain America, Guardians of the Galaxy, Doctor Strange, Avengers, Daredevil, Jessica Jones, and Luke Cage. Are these movies and shows teaching liberalism, conservatism, socialism, anarchism, fascism, multiculturalism, or something else entirely? How does the Marvel Universe reflect our time, and how does it express utopian and dystopian visions? Why are these movies and shows popular around the world?

In the first half of each class, the professor lectures on political ideologies—their histories, authors, arguments, books, and legacy. In the second half, students lead a discussion about the politics of a character in the Marvel Universe.

It is serious course about political ideologies and a fun opportunity to talk about the Marvel Universe.

Powerpoint + leading class discussion about a character 10

Midterm 20
Final exam 20
Class participation 10

Students will write a 4500-word (15) research paper on a political theme in the Marvel Universe. For the first three Mondays of the class, students will turn in a 5-page paper on a political theme in the Marvel Universe (women’s rights, animal rights, economic justice, the individual versus the community, toleration, nuclear power, religion, etc.). The papers should discuss a Marvel television show or movie, three reviews, and two academic sources. Then, the final paper will add an introduction, a conclusion, and edits based on feedback from the professor. See appendix for a template.

Each student in the course will be responsible for leading a 1 hour class discussion about a Marvel character. Using a Powerpoint and up to 10 minutes of videos, students should explain the history of the superhero, the scholarly literature on the superhero (including the assigned article), the politics of the superhero (and how they have changed), and the student’s thoughts. The purpose is to have a lively conversation about the politics of the Marvel Universe.

Research Paper Structure

Title that indicates topic and thesis

I. Introduction
   1. Hook: Tell an interesting story and then raise a provocative question, i.e. Is the Marvel Universe feminist? Is the Marvel Universe ahead of or behind the curve of transgender awareness? Does the Marvel Universe maintain old-fashioned views of masculinity and is that a problem? Should the Marvel Universe accommodate Chinese political sensibilities? Etc.
   2. Map: Explain how you will answer the question by examining three Marvel movies. Say why these movies are the right ones to answer your question.

II. Theme X in Marvel Comic, Movie, or Television Show 1
   - Answer the big question
   - Explain the plot of the movie
   - Cite 3 reviews and 2 academic articles or book chapters. The academic sources may be on the movie or the political issue, e.g. feminism.
   - Consider the evidence in the movie that could support answering the question the other way. Complexity makes the paper better.
   - The last few paragraphs can discuss your view on whether the movie is good or bad on the political issue.

III. Theme X in Marvel Comic, Movie, or Television Show 2

IV. Theme X in Marvel Comic, Movie, or Television Show 3

V. Conclusion
   Articulate your own informed perspective. Answer the question that you raised in the introduction. And then share your thoughts about whether the Marvel movies are a force for good or bad, how they should be different going forward, etc. In general, the best way to articulate your own perspective is to contrast it with those of other smart people in the conversation. So if your paper is on how the Marvel Universe handles racism, engage with other people who have written on the topic and explain how you agree and disagree with them.
